17-CV-09245 (KHP)

ORDER

KATHARINE H. PARKER, UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

As discussed during the February 27, 2019 show cause hearing in this matter, the Court grants Stephen D. Hans & Associates, P.C., counsel for all Defendants, leave to file a motion to withdraw. (See Dkt. No. 25.) Counsel are instructed to file their motion on ECF by no later than March 8, 2019. The motion should include the following:

- An affidavit setting forth the facts showing that Defendants terminated them;
- A copy of the email Defendants sent counsel to terminate them; and
- An address and contact information for Defendant Seafood of The Gods Group, LLC.

To the extent Plaintiff's counsel will seek to recover any fees, costs, and post-judgment interest in connection with enforcing the judgment in this action, they should make an application. Plaintiff's counsel, Pardalis & Nohavicka, LLP, are hereby instructed to file a status update on ECF by no later than May 24, 2019 advising whether they were able to speak with a representative at Seafood of the Gods LLC, whether they were able to collect any portion of the judgment in this action, and an estimate for when their collection efforts will be complete.

SO ORDERED.
